KINGS MARKET OPENS IN PLAZA

The parking lot at the Triangle Plaza Shopping Center filled up rapidly Monday morning with the opening of the second new store in the shopping center – Kings Super Market. The new Kings has more than 20,000 square feet of shopping and service area and replaces a 14,000 square foot Kings Market on Rt. 460, near location of the first supermarket operated by Ralph King 13 years ago. The Kings Supermarket chain now extends to 13 stores – 12 of these in other towns and cities.

HAT & DRESS MAKING LISTED IN CLUB REPORT

A hat making project and dress making were listed as important accomplishments of the Henry Penny Home Demonstration Club, as reported by Mrs. Martha Watkins in the annual club report.

Membership in the club numbers 12 with eight non-club members reached during the year. The club contributed to "Pennies for Friendship", Appomattox County Rescue Squad and donated juice and paper cups for the Red Cross Bloodmobile. In addition, a local youth with a kidney problem was given $10.

OAKVILLE HD HELPS CAMPERS

Sending two young people to 4-H camp is listed as a major project of the Oakville Home Demonstration Club as noted in their annual reported submitted by Mrs. Wiley Moore.

The club membership stands at 22 with four non-club members reached during the year in various activities.

Two members received reading certificates and $10.00 was given by the Oakville club to the Speech and Hearing Center.

The Oakville members provide food each election day at the Oakville precinct and then use proceeds to help others, including the sending of flowers to members' families on the occasion of a death.

Public Invited To Pre-Christmas Dinner At Masonic Hall

The general public is cordially invited to attend a benefit pre-Christmas dinner at the Masonic Hall on Sunday afternoon from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Tickets are on sale by members of the local lodge. A special gift will be given away at 5 p.m. to the holder of the lucky number.

A large crowd of relatives and friends attended the funeral services last Saturday evening at 1 p.m. for the late Deacon Tom Nowlin at the St. Luke Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. James McLaughlin officiating and delivering the eulogy. Music was rendered by the Senior Choir. A solo was sung by Mrs. Branch of Route 3, Lynchburg. Resolutions and the family letter were read by Mrs. O. W. Smith. Remarks were given by Rev. R. Q. Lawing on behalf of Long Mountain Lodge No. 204 of Mason. The pastor described the deceased as a faithful servant to family, church and Community. Burial was conducted in the church cemetery with Masonic rites with P.M. James Tweedy in charge.

News has been received here of the death of the late Rev. Tom Wright, brother of Mrs. Ada Nowlin. Funeral services will be conducted in West Virginia and a service will be conducted here Thursday at the Galilee Baptist Church at 1 p.m. Friends of the family are asked to attend.

The public is invited to attend the annual Candlelight Christmas Service sponsored by the Galilee Senior Choir this Sunday at 8 p.m.

The annual Men's Day program was enjoyed by all who attended last Sunday evening at 3 p.m. at the Promise Land Baptist Church. The Rev. Barry Williams, pastor of the New Vine Baptist Church was the guest speaker. He was assisted in the service by the Rev. Fred Bagley. Music was rendered by the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church Choir under the direction of Mrs. C. S. Tunrer. Deacon William Hancock served as master of ceremony. Words of welcome were given by Deacon Stewart Robinson. The response was given by Deacon Berrell Turner, Jr., of Mount Shiloh. The following Men's Clubs were represented: Jordan, by letter; Peaceful Grove, by letter; Zion Baptist, by Deacon Frank Johnson, Mount Shiloh by Mr. Daniel Tanner. The general offering was lifted by Deacons Clarence Wheeler, Emmette Fleshman, and Frank Johnson. The Galilee Men's Club was represented by Deacon James Pannell. The pastor of the church gave the final remarks and thanked all who helped to make the program a success.

Impressive services were held Mount Shiloh Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a Christmas message on the Names of Our Lord. Music was rendered by the Senior Choir. Several visitors attended the service.

All officers, members and friends are invited to attend the regular preaching service at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11 a.m. This will be our annual Christmas service and the last preaching service for 1971.

The family and a large number of friends were served dinner at the home of Deacon and Mrs. James A. Canada after the funeral service of Deacon Nowling. Relatives attended from Philadelphia, Newport News, Cumberland, Pamplin and Washington, D.C.

Reach to Recovery

Total rehabilitation of women who have undergone surgery for breast cancer is the aim of an American Cancer Society program called Reach to Recovery. In this program the physician is assisted by selected, trained volunteers who have had mastectomies (breast surgery) themselves, and understand fully the problems the patient faces.

In addition, the club, numbering 18 members, took part in a workshop on Easter decorations. A picnic was enjoyed and a covered dish Christmas party listed. Six members earned reading certificates.

Several of the club members had sickness and deaths in their families and all in all it was a busy year.

GIFT BASKETS ARE HD PROJECT

The Lee Home Demonstration Club include Christmas baskets to elderly people as part of their year's activities according to a club report submitted by Mrs. W. T. Torrence.

JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y

Our first Junior Tri-Hi-Y meeting was held Dec. 3, 1971 at the Appomattox Intermediate School. The meeting was opened by our sponsor Mrs. Nancy Jones. Rev. Alfred Eastman was elected to the advisory committee chaplain of our organization. We elected officers who are Grace Ranson, president; Gail Moore, Vice-President; Teresa Cyrus, Reporter; Dawn Rush, Historian; and Ruth Stratton, Secretary and Treasurer. The meeting was adjourned with a prayer.

Dec. 8, 1971 we had an executive meeting for the officers. We discussed our purpose of creating, maintaining, and extending our Christian witness in our club. We also discussed having a thought for the week, and the possibility of having a blessing and devotions at school. Dues of $2.00 must be paid to Ruth Stratton by this Friday. The common purpose of our club is to create, maintain, extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character.

Respectfully submitted
Teresa Cyrus, Reporter

Raiders Rip Nelson 89-51

The Appomattox Raiders broke open a close game in the third quarter and went on to beat the Nelson County Governors 89-51 in a Seminole District basketball game last Friday night at Nelson. The win gives the Raiders a 3-1 overall mark and 2-1 in the district. Nelson is 2-2 overall and 1-2 in the district.

Appomattox led 18-13 after the first quarter and 35-30 at the half. In the third quarter the Raiders outscored Nelson 26-6 for a 61-36 lead as Ricky Garrett and David Johnson combined for 15 points in that quarter. The Raiders cleaned their bench in the fourth quarter and outscored Nelson 28-15 as every player on the Raiders team got in on the scoring.

Ricky Garrett, hitting on eight of 14 shots from the floor, led the Raiders in scoring with 22 points. He was six of eight on the foul line. The only other Raider in double figures was David Johnson with 16 points.

Linwood Bowling led the Governors with 11 points and Keith Haywood and William Napper each had 10.

The Raiders, led by Leon Robinson, outrebounded Nelson 41 to 32. Robinson had 11 rebounds and played only about half the game. Appomattox hit on 31 of 68 shots from the floor and Nelson 21 of 60. In the first half, the Raiders had 14 turnovers and looked much better in the second half, making on three mistakes. Nelson turned the ball over a total of 28 times.

How To Make An 'A'
